Charles Louis Barreswil (1817-1870) .

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Width : 26cm5

Diameter : 17cm

Height : 26cm5

Description

Bronze medallion showing the profile of Barreswil Charles Louis (1817-1870) Was a French physiologist and biochemist who was among the first to study the process of digestion in humans as well as a range of chemical applications. According to the sculptor Edouard -François Millet de Marcillé (1839-1923) in a square format frame in black stained oak.

Dealer

Antiquités Lamouret
Objets de collection et curiosités
Mobile : 06 07 34 40 77

29 rue Jean Jaurès
Nantes 44000