Description

This stoneware is a reworking of an antique subject with two pretty grips, a chiseled decoration. Renowned ceramist, Charles Gréber (Beauvais 1853 -1935) made a lasting mark on Beauvais ceramics and developed the family business, created by his father in 1870, while making it his celebrity. For the state, note a cooking defect under a handle (photographed). Our many photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For the state thank you for detailing the photos. Feel free to zoom. The photos are an integral part of the description.
