Description

Léon Levkovitch (1936) bronze sculpture - 1975 Sculpture / volume entitled "Spooky animal" dating from 1975 in bronze with brown - green patina. Edition 4/8 10 x 10 x 5 cm Signed at the baseVisible at the Courcelles Antiquités Gallery, at 41 rue des Acacias, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris.Born in 1936 in Lodz, Léon Levkovitch is a Polish sculptor. A graduate in plastic arts from the School of Applied Arts in Lodz, he arrived in Paris in 1961. In 1969, he met the gallery owner Abel Rosenberg who was to begin exhibiting his work. This is the start of his career. His works are unique in their ability to represent metaphors and to refer to mythology (we find Ulysses and his raft, Spynx figures...). Even if he explores drawing and painting, he devotes himself completely to the practice of sculpture
