Description

Pair of furniture in walnut and burr walnut, Lombard origin, dating back to the first part of the eighteenth century.

The furniture consists of an inlaid top a geometric motif with a briar folder in the centre of walnut. The front part is formed by a door with two shoulders notched in relief, all with folder in Walnut briar threaded around the entire perimeter. In the center of the door there is the same decoration of the top.

Inside a piece of furniture there is a shelf, while in the other a series of overlapping drawers. The whole it rests on shaped supports, in the shape of an onion
