Description

Lovely little frame under glass very richly decorated with shells, flowers and foliage in wood and gilded stucco in the Napoleon III style - second half of the 19th century. Having never been dismantled, it houses a charming intimate color lithograph of the time. The gilding is of very good quality, shiny satin on the reliefs and matt in the hollows. The frame has its original mounting with its old glass and the paper that covers the unopened back as well as its hook. Dimensions: 20.5cm x 15.5cm. It can accommodate a work or a photo of approximately 15.7 cm x 12.2 cm. Weight: 280 g Very good condition despite some cracks without affecting its aesthetics or its solidity (see detailed photos). Gorgeous ! I present its pendant in another ad in my gallery. Many other objects to discover in my
