The Lladró factory is known for being the most prestigious firm of porcelain pieces in Spain. It was founded in 1953. Starting in the 1960s, the company began its international expansion, which led it to become a benchmark company in luxury ceramics. In 1965 Lladró exported part of its production to Canada and began to enter the United States. During the 1970s there was a significant increase in Lladró products in the North American market. Also in the mid-seventies, Lladró began to sell its products in Japan.
