Description

Interesting oil on canvas representing a somewhat ghostly landscape in which the silhouette of an imposing castle hidden by trees is emerging. The bare trees seem to have been beaten by the winds, thus giving a fairy tale atmosphere to this work. This painting was made by the painter Paul Goetz and bears his signature lower right. This beautiful oil on canvas is sold framed. This well-known artist in Indre (36) has produced many landscapes of Brenne in a post-impressionist style. He set up his studio in Vendoeuvres (36) with his wife Solange in the 1950s. Some of his paintings are present in museums such as the Hospice Saint-Roch museum in Issoudun.
