Description

A bouquet holder brooch in solid silver Gilded therefore vermeil With additions in cloisonné and enamel inside of it With cabochons of turquoises and coral In good condition except that it lacks the security at the attachment of the barrette... My repair jeweler should be able to do a few things if necessary Checked "silver" on the body and another hallmark on the barrette.. A nice work of filigree, added threads, colored enamels and crimps. I think coming from a Mediterranean country... Fairly rare object Weight...15 gr
