Description

Office table in solid Light Walnut, with Rectangular top with Miter-cut Frame. A Bec de Corbin molding, gracefully scalloped, borders this top. As a belt, this 150-year-old piece of furniture offers a long drawer, 8.5 cm deep, opening with two wooden pull buttons. This Table rests on a Generously Crafted base, made up of four Elegantly Twisted legs. These are linked together by a Turned Spacer, topped by three important Sculpted Decorations. Each foot ends in half Galettes. This Table evokes an Indisputable Robustness and exudes a Certain Charm. It is predisposed to an already warm interior, and can be used as a side table or a small apartment desk. ***** Period: 1880 Excellent condition after restoration in our workshop. Finish only Waxed after stripping. Additional
