Description

JAEGER LE COULTRE Mémovox men's watch with chime; model GT / E961 from the 70s, in polished and brushed steel, with dato. This watch offers the striking/alarm clock complication, by means of two superimposed trays, and two different crowns for the separate setting of the watch time and the striking time. The crown at 2 o'clock is used to set the alarm, indicated by the central rotating plate. This is a self-winding watch, caliber 825. Its glass is in plexi as required by the time, the case back screwed. The watch is duly signed and numbered, and its proper functioning is guaranteed by us for one year (except in the event of shock or immersion).
Model: Memovox GT / E961 Complication: Alarm, chime, alarm clock and date Year: 1970
