Description

DUTCH SCHOOL THE CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL WATERCOLOR CIRCA 1750

Wall decoration project, pencil, gray ink pen and watercolour. 294 mm x 143 mm With its frame: 320 mm x 140 mm Taking up this biblical theme already addressed by Caravaggio, a century earlier, on his way to Damascus, Paul, animated by a murderous rage towards the disciples of the Lord, is dazzled him and his horse by a violent lightning. Jesus appears to him, he then falls from his mount... From this event or miracle, Paul will become one of the most fervent disciples towards Jesus for whom he will go so far as to sacrifice his life.
