Description

Very beautiful table, 19th century, in walnut from a castle in the Loire Valley. Four opulent legs with barrels in fluted columns adorned with asparagus resting on rosette dice. Feet joined by an eventful spacer decorated in its center with a gadrooned firepot loaded with garlands of flowers. Belt decorated with curly ribbon. Furniture of very good quality, healthy and in very good condition. This open table is five meters long. The sliders slide perfectly. Two pairs of feet allow it to be consolidated open. The table does not have its extensions. Its previous owners used removable dimension boards. Height 74 cm, dimensions of the closed top 180x150 cm. Dimensions open table 500x150 cm.
