Description

Beautiful Transition Louis XV - Louis XVI period corner cupboard in marquetry. It opens with two doors and is topped with its original marble, white veined with purple (luxury marble). Beautiful decoration in marquetry of rosewood and amaranth with floral motifs and shells. Its elegant violin shape gives it a still very Louis XV character. Parisian work veneered on oak (circa 1770). Our corner is in excellent condition; the buffer varnish has been redone by our cabinetmaker, very shiny. Front width 89cm Radius (distance from corner to edge of front): 62 and 67cm Height 85cm
