Description

Long Wall Console, with Marble top in Violine and Ocher tones. The latter is Molded in Gorge and Bec de Corbin around its perimeter, and its front angles are cut with rounded projections. The shape of this Marble Harmoniously marries that of the Console and the Eventful belt on which it rests. The structure of this piece of furniture is in Black Patinated Wrought Iron, highlighting the Golden Decorations that embellish it. Thus the headband is embellished with geometric plates on its three sides, and a motif with a flower in the center. This console is also composed of two feet with large scrolls in the upper parts, and finished with more sober windings in the lower part. These two Elegant legs, adorned with Acanthus Leaves and other Golden plants, are linked together by a last element of Iron, enriched in the center with a Pretty Shell. This base is installed on a Marble Base, with Concave sides, and in colors reminiscent of that of the top. On the upper part, its edges are shaped in discreet Gorge and deep groove. We will appreciate the Generous Curve and the Round lines of this Rockery Console, as well as the successful contrast between its Yellow tones and its Dark tones.
