Provenance: House in Llavaneras (Barcelona) whose interior was entirely designed by Pere Cosp in 1948-1949, referenced on the site dedicated to the author which lists the most important interior fittings he made for individuals and companies. Innovation and avant-gardism come together in this splendid coffee table, designed by Pere Cosp around 1950. The oval top, made up of slightly spaced walnut slats, rests on one side on a prismatic iron base. The other foot, consisting of a large oval made of walnut slats, gives consistency to the piece of
