Description

Bas-relief panel in polychrome and gilded carved wood, decorative piece of woodwork, representing a kneeling man in prayer before an angel descended from heaven carrying a chalice, above the character of the sparkling golden rays, all within a frame of foliated arabesques, from the 17th century. This item is in overall good condition. Mounted in 2 parts see photos. A note: perhaps missing a small winding of golden foliage at the level of the feet of the man, some wear you miss on the polychromy and the gilding, wear of time, see photos.
