Description

Superb and elegant console from the restoration period in mahogany. It rests on a curved plinth surmounted by 2 console uprights finished with claw feet at the base and a volute at the top and decorated with gilded bronze leaves. In the upper part, it opens on the front with a drawer decorated with gilded bronze decorated with swans and flower cups. The set is topped with a Saint-Anne gray marble molded on 3 sides. The back of the cabinet includes a mirror on the floor giving depth to the whole. Quality work in very good condition, elegant and with pretty proportions.
