Description

Beautiful set of chairs in rosewood and marquetry of lemon tree forming foliage and scrolls, accompanied by thin inlaid nets. Each of these chairs has an enveloping gondola back with a long curved rosewood headband and a cream-coloured crushed velvet upholstery featuring two swans surrounded by scrollwork and foliage. The seat is squared and has a removable slab in excellent condition, covered with the same quality fabric. These seats rest on two tapered front legs with feigned grooves and rear saber legs, turned outwards for perfect stability. These four Charles X chairs will seduce you with their quality, comfort and undeniable refinement.  Period: Early 19th century
Excellent condition after restoration in our workshop. Trace on the seat of an armchair.
