Description

Drawing made in pencil and white lead on paper by artist Alberto Pasini(1826 - 1899) around 1860, during his time in Istanbul.

The subject is the recognizable "Blue Mosque," better described by the artist in the lower left corner as "Sultan Ahmed Constantinople Mosque," depicted from a more lateral and bottom view.

The state of preservation is good, and it has coeval signature at lower right.

The measurements are 44 x 28.5 cm.
