Description

Beautiful and large 19th century engraving representing a scene from the novel "Paul et Virginie" by Jacques-Henri Bernardin de Saint-Pierre. Engraved by Eugene Jaset. Goupil and Vibert printing press. We can notably read an extract from the novel: "As soon as they had finished their prayers they heard a dog barking. "It seems to me" said Virginie "that it's Fidèle, the dog in our hut, Yes I recognized his voice ". Very beautiful gilded frame, molded at the corner with acanthus leaf and flowers, traces of gold leaf can be found on the edges. Good general condition. Delivery possible by specialized carrier, suitable protection, on estimate. Me contact at 0678876161 or 0243446489
