Description

Venice, Italy, late XVIth or early XVIIth cty Stunning and very rare embossed Leather Powder Horn, chiseled with flowered vase on pedestals, and mascarons,...

The powder pear consists of 2 parts whose junction is cleverly covered with a narrow strip of leather also worked and with a cut contour, all along the edge, and which hides the structure in a very refined way.

The 2 passers-by, in perfect condition, are worked in leather with the same care and detail.

Sizes: 27cm length * 20 high and 6.5cm thickness

Very good condition (note only a few minors
