Description

Elegant Italian Louis XV Style cabinet with desk 1910s. This cabinet is characterized by a refined veneer in fine rosewood. The veneer is laid using the grain of the wood as a decoration, the contrasts form particular decorations with a geometric taste on each side of the piece of furniture. The characteristic rounded and wavy shape with slender and sinuous encabriolè legs typical of the Louis XV period is of great value. We advise you to look in detail at all the images to understand the rarity of this cabinet. The openable floor allows a support to write. Inside four small drawers. Two large and comfortable drawers under the opening top. This cabinet is fantastic it will be the first to be admired in the room. Perfect condition ready to be placed in your home.
