Description

Extremely rare and lovely meat dish from the Louis XVI period with the hallmarks of the city of Apt in the jurisdiction of Aix-en-Provence for the year 1780 and with the hallmark of a master silversmith by Gaspard Burel, received master in 1777. Rather solid and heavy for its size, it is perfectly suited for regular use on a beautiful, well-laid table. Other generations of owners have already done it, which gives it a real old patina of knife marks and light scratches. Weight 742 grams.
