Description

Elegant pair of small Globe Wernicke London bookcases in mahogany from the end of the 19th century-Early 20th century from England which has an advanced lower part. Which is unusual and gives them a lot of character

The two bookcases are composed of 4 elements and can be left together and form a large bookcase or separately

The bookcases are made of mahogany and are composed of a base and a molded top and 4 glazed elements

The windows slide inside the cabinet and have brass handles

They can be used as bookcases or showcase
