colored notes caresses our retina. Power and ardor spring from the works of Van Hecke, in moderation they will awaken a still life, with a sometimes violent force, they will give a portrait an incomparable emotion. Each object by a precise touch takes a natural and authentic place in the composition. Numerous meetings during his life have made his work evolve, his Flemish origins have marked him, all these points are important to study in order to discover or better know Arthur Van Hecke.
