Description

Armchair 'à la Reine'

Old style re-varnished wood

Fully pegged

Paris, circa 1785

Dimensions

This armchair is characteristic of the great productions of the end of the Ancien Régime: the very fine work of mouldings on the belt; the balusters; the detached columns are all elements of the manufacture of seats by the best Parisian carpenters, such as Demay or Henri Jacob, to which this superb seat may remind us.

Condition report:

Old fashioned glue lacquer and silk velvet from Le Manach, showing some wear. Superb!
