Description

This 19th century Madonna and Child comes from Bretage.

Very endearing in its simplicity, it is a real ode to motherhood. You can see any woman carrying her wriggling baby.
Amusing in its realization with the Child who moves, animated arms and legs, this sculpture touches us by its naivety.

This Virgin seated with the Child is characteristic of a popular work, inspired by the codes of the medieval style.

Good condition. Later restorations.
