Description

Russian icon depicting the Resurrection of Christ, represented in accordance with Orthodox iconographic canons. Christ, dressed in white as a symbol of victory over death, is shown with open arms in a gesture of blessing. On either side, angelic and praying figures take part in the sacred scene, set against a sober background that emphasizes the spiritual dimension of the event.The composition has a strong devotional presence and is characterized by a restrained use of color and the solemnity of the figures' gestures, typical of Russian icon production of the 19th century.ConditionGood overall condition, with natural signs of age consistent with the period: craquelure, minor abrasions and surface wear to the painted layer. Attractive original patina.
