Museum: Monk Tobacco Pouch Glass Beads And Polychrome Wood, Milan? 18th Century

680 EUR

Signature : Art Populaire

Period : 18th century

Condition : Prévoir restauration

Material : Glass

Length : 23cm

Width : 10cm

Description

Tobacco pouch in shape of a Franciscan monk, Italy, late 18th century, head, hands and feet are polychrome carved wood, hooded bure knitted with gray glass beads with a black border; head and hood slid along a cord retained by brass rings, inside is one purse lined with cream lamb's bladder, that ends with two free feet, shod with sandals, painted wood.
Good condition for polychrome wood part, (except one damaged finger), the bead embroidery, which does not support the centuries as well, complete, has suffered, is to be darned in several places, the cord to be tightened. Similar on Getti Museum, (Gettyimages) our photo document: la Fleur du Mal, exhibited on Trianon de Bagatelle, Dominique Delalande., p.37.

Dealer

Eclecticnimes
Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,
Tel : +33665241111
Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127

Dimensions: approximately 23cm x 10cm. Take a good look at our photos.....
This item is for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or paypal.
- eclectic - antique dealers since 1970, Siret: FR 24.430113233. Invoice and Certificate are attached to each of our shipments