Description

Low relief in ivory by Voltaire seen in profile. The sculpture is very expressive, very well done; We immediately recognize the great writer of the 18th century by his mischievous look, his long curly hair, his aquiline nose and his slightly clogged chin. The portrait is within a bronze-rimmed oval; it is fixed on a "duck" blue silk, which highlights the ivory bas-relief. The whole is in a rectangular bronze frame adorned on the edge with fine decorative motifs and a golden leaf at the 4 corners of the oval. 20 X 17cm Oval: 12 X 10cm Voltaire profile: 8.5 X 6cm Good This frame has a foldable foot which allows it to be placed on a piece of furniture and a ring if you prefer to hang it on the wall.
