

"the Sower" By Alliot Lucien

1 500 EUR

Signature : ALLIOT Lucien

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 52

Height : 64

Description

Le Semeur ALLIOT Lucien, 1877-1967 bronze with dark gray patina nuanced with green Signed on the embankment L ALLIOT n°2 Old edition cast circa 1930 Ht. : 64 cm Length. : 52 cm ALLIOT Lucien Charles Edouard (1877-1967) Lucien Charles Edouard Alliot grew up in a family of artists, his father being a sculptor and painter. He continued the family bronze-edition business after entering the Beaux-Arts, where he was taught by Barrias and Coutan, both famous French sculptors and winners of the Prix de Rome. The evolution of his work and his artistic career is marked by the different fashions of his time. Indeed, from the start he mastered classical themes, such as childhood, then Art Nouveau, with women and flowers, Art Deco and neoclassical themes. He exhibited for the first

Dealer

ARTVAL la Galerie du Meuble d'Art
Antiquaire Generaliste

Tel : 06 81 69 87 52

Valence 26000

time at the Salon in 1896 and is still present there after 1945. His works were mainly plaster sketches which were then made in bronze. Visit our website: www.meubles-art.com