Description

This set of stained glass windows comes from a private chapel in the south of France. Beautiful polychromy for this spectacular stained glass window dedicated to the Sacred Heart, of which we have here three radiant representations.From these Sacred Hearts spring leaves of three-leafed vines, simultaneously symbolizing Christ and Trinity.Shimmering colors and fine design are the characteristic features of this rich set. The two central panels are mounted on a frame allowing the opening. A master glassmaker will have to take up the various gaps and breakages in this harmonious structure.The dimensions of this large piece are 260 cm high by 129 cm wide and the carpentry is 8 cm thick.
