Description

Set of two bronze candelabras, Louis XVI style, also known as "Bouts de Table". Each of them is equipped with two Curved Arms of Light, seeming to come out of Stylized Acanthus Leaves. They are terminated by Bobèches with Laurel Crowns, themselves serving as receptacles for Fluted Chalices. It will be noted that these Candlestick parts are removable, to facilitate their cleaning. These Candlesticks are composed of a Cylindrical shaft - reminiscent of the Unshakable Ancient Columns - topped with a Cup Decorated with Fruit. These Objects rest on a Circular Pedestal, with Beaded and Foliage Friezes. On a piece of furniture or on a table, these two candlesticks with perfect symmetry will create a subdued atmosphere and will embellish your interior. They will bring Allure, Charm and
