Description

Small Console from the Restoration period in Cuban Mahogany Burl veneer, with Granite Marble top predominantly Anthracite Gray with a thickness of 2 cm. This piece of furniture offers a nice drawer 8.5 cm deep, hidden in its belt, and opening by two invisible notches placed below. It is composed at the front of two Cambered Uprights with Lion's Claws at the end of the jamb, and Half-columns at the end of the feet. Note that those at the back are flat and straight. The Set is linked by a thick Crotch Tray, Concave in front. This one presents very beautiful Mahogany designs. We will remember that this Bicentenary Console with reduced dimensions will be predisposed to all surfaces, apartment as well as house. It will harmonize perfectly with a Traditional Decorative Universe, as well as a
