Description

Very nice bonbonnière by Jean Mayodon decorated with antelopes, faience.

Below, presence of the monogram of the artist "M".

This bonbonnière is quite representative of the work of Jean Mayodon, famous Art Deco potter who directed Sevres in the 1940s. He produced a ceramic with figurative decoration, in the ancient taste, characterized by the practice of stanniferous faience to "golden fire".

In very good condition, very slight wear on the gold parts.
