Description

Console with 4 legs in Louis XVI style in rechampi and gilded wood from the 18th century. She is wearing a marble with a rose-colored groove cut with string. Its central crosspiece is separated into 3 cartridges, those on the right and left are decorated with golden heart stripes, the middle one is decorated with a beaded interlacing frieze. The 4 feet are decorated with falls of golden acanthus leaves on the upper part then fluted and rudentés on the bottom. Very sober and elegant, it will easily integrate a contemporary interior as well as an old interior. Period XVIII I
