velvet is in perfect condition.

The edges are impeccable as well as the fringes having the original length.

This rug is a beautiful decorative and comfortable piece, the decor is abundant and beautifully designed, and the wool is of high quality.

The Sarough carpet, or Sarouk, the Ecbatana of Antiquity, is knotted in a few villages near Sarouk in the agricultural region of Arak.

European buying houses have had agencies there since the middle of the 19th century.

Most of these rugs are nicknamed hamadan by traders, especially the runners knotted in this region.

These Persian or Indo-Persian carpets remain very popular in the United States, where decorators appreciate the heavy and important luxurious pieces of wool.

These carpets have a very good resistance to passage.
