Description

Pair of multi-lobed Chantilly porcelain vases mounted on a gilt bronze base made by the Samson house in Paris at the end of the 19th century. The floral, plant and bird decorations are typical of this factory. The signature of Chantilly is that of the house of Samson, which was very renowned at that time. The gilded bronze frame magnifies the porcelain. Very rare and very decorative, this pair of objects can be placed on a chest of drawers or a fireplace. Late 19th century period Perfect condition Made by the Samson house in Paris. Welcome to our store in Nice opposite the Masséna museum and just behind the famous Negresco hotel.
