Description

Wrought iron and brass sculpture "fin de fiesta" theatrical scene by Carlos Y Manuel Tolosa, 1929
The forge in its splendor The creative forge of the 20th century in Aragon, if not all of Spain, gives the impression of being centered on very few names, perhaps because it is related to trade without a fully artistic idea.
But they are two, Carlos the blacksmith and Manuel, his son, also a born blacksmith but a sculptor using his technique, his trade, for creation, which mark a category of national importance
