Description

Two elegant large Italian chests of drawers around 1775. On the chests of drawers are the original white marbles which are in very good condition. The chests of drawers are veneered with precious wood. Very slight restorations are necessary for the veneers, see the photos. The fittings are in gilded bronze. Italian Louis XVI chests of drawers are very rare to find in pairs, they were probably commissioned by a noble family from Milan, Italy in the last quarter of the 18th century. Width: 125cm. Height: 96cm. Depth: 60cm.
