

Timbale En Argent France XVIII Siecle

295 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 7,5 cm

Description

Timpani on circular pedestal in chased silver decorated with a frieze of pearls on the foot. The body is tulip-shaped, divided at mid-height by a double net, the lower part is embellished with a large frieze of shells and scrolls on a matte background. The collar is slightly flared, molded with nets. French work from the 18th century.

Louis XV style

Old regime hallmarks, letter probably dates from Dijon around 1784 **

Hallmark of large charge of Paris: to be determined

A relief punch part is present on the edge of the base.

Traces of the hallmark of Master Goldsmith.

Height: 7.5cm

Diameter at the neck: 6.6 cm

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600

Weight: 94 g

Good condition, without restorations

Tardy Dictionary, 16th edition Paris, page 152