Description

Pair of large potiches covered in earthenware from Gien. With Asian blue and white decorations.
The lids are surmounted by a fretel materializing a seated, protective Fo dog.
The handles could represent No theater masks, overhanging a fixed ring.
Note as a curiosity that each vase bears a mark of the three towers of the Gien factory, both different but dating from 1960.
Height: 62 cm
Diameter at the widest point: 30 cm
