Description

Lovely Ceramic Planter with Painted Decor presenting an illustrated Landscape on each side. This 19th century Decorative Object was made by Édouard Gilles (1868-1895), an Art Faïencier known for the beauty of his creations. This Ceramic Planter from Montigny-sur-Loing presents a monogram signed hollow EG and numbered 229. Each side of this Decorative Object is illustrated with a Landscape. A City bordering a river under an Autumnal sky appears in warm hues, then gives way to a Scene composed of boats and houses at the edge of the water. This Planter rests on 4 feet and simulates embossed handles in the shape of rings. Poetic and Harmonious, this Unique Work will delight lovers of Romanesque objects. ***** Period: 19th century Old restoration with staples.
