Description

Adorable and very rare candle holder, L163 candle holder by Hans-Agne Jakobsson Markaryd from the 1950s.

The base is in white glass with a brass candle holder.

The lampshade is made of finely perforated brass with small holes through which the light is diffused.

Time has passed on the lampshade which has a slight discoloration and some cracks, but which gives it all the charm of a vintage and extremely rare object.
