

Malachite Empire Clock

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Length : 38 cm

Width : 15 cm

Height : 55 cm

Description

This mantel clock is a true masterpiece of craftsmanship, an exclusive decorative object crafted from high-quality bronze and malachite. This unique timepiece blends elegance with a rich history and exceptional craftsmanship. The clock's case is fashioned from bronze and enhanced with malachite inlays. This noble semi-precious stone is distinguished by its characteristic green hue streaked with black veins, lending the clock a unique appearance and offering a visual feast for the eyes. The centerpiece of the clock is a beautifully sculpted bronze figure, likely representing a mythological deity or a classical figure. The figure is poised in a graceful pose, adding a touch of artistic sophistication to the timepiece. The clock face, likely made of porcelain or

Dealer

Royal Antique

Proudly delivering art and elegance.

Tel : +48 722090633

Mobile : +48 722090633 (WhatsApp)

Warszawa 02-681

enamel, is elegantly designed with Roman numerals and delicate hands. The timekeeping mechanism is likely of high quality, ensuring accurate and reliable timekeeping.

This mantel clock is not merely a functional timepiece but also a statement piece for any discerning collector or connoisseur of fine art and decorative objects. Its combination of exquisite materials, meticulous craftsmanship, and timeless design makes it a truly exceptional piece.

Key Features:

Bronze and malachite construction

Intricate bronze figure

Elegant clock face

High-quality timekeeping mechanism

Unique and decorative design