Description

Charming mirror to hang, in gilded wood and in Louis XVI style. Its mercury glass in excellent condition is surrounded by a beautiful rectangular frame with a warm and golden hue. The woodwork of this frame is embellished with a first molded frieze then a second internal, beaded. The upper corners are enriched with hanging tassels, those at the bottom are also sculpted in a more abstract way. On the generously stylized pediment, there is a flowered vase topped with a laurel wreath. The set is fixed on a wooden support in military green. On the back, this good is provided with a ring necessary for its installation. This gracefully crafted mirror with a sustained shine will arouse interest. It will adapt to a chic or more country style.  In a perfect state. No lack. Original mercury glass in
