Description

Oil on canvas still life with peaches, game and flowers on an entablature draped in a green fabric embroidered with gold, in the style of the 18th century. This work presents a rich composition around peaches and a bunch of grapes placed in a metal dish, the trophies of a return from hunting such as hare, partridge, pheasant are piled up under a bouquet of pink roses in a baluster vase with blue and white decor. This still life is animated by birds, one of which is hunting an insect. The whole of a great realism is full of charm and softness highlighted by Louis XVI style frame in wood painted in white with green trim. Signed lower right (not deciphered)
Good condition, an old restoration visible on the back.

Delivery costs in metropolitan France 20 euros,
