Description

First Empire period - Early 19th century France
Beautiful set of 16,90 linear meters (14.5 cm high) of First Empire borders for decoration.
Cotton printed on a wooden board with neo-classical frieze motifs loaded with pine cones, chimney brown on a yellow ochre background. The production of wall borders is an essential part of the decoration of castles and mansions during the first half of the 19th century. They framed large hangings above the woodwork. There are 9,70 meters in excellent condition and 7 meters with areas of discoloration. 820 euros the whole. Maybe divided.
