Description

This elegant pedestal is a fine example of the Empire style that flourished in France during the early 19th century. Inspired by the grandeur of the Roman Empire, the style is characterized by its clean lines, symmetrical design, and use of rich materials.

The pedestal showcases this aesthetic with its dark wood finish, likely mahogany or a similar hardwood, and ornate brass accents. The inclusion of stylized motifs, such as the prominent busts at the top, is a hallmark of the Empire style, referencing classical Greek and Roman iconography.

The pedestal's design is both functional and decorative. Its sturdy construction and ample surface area make it ideal for displaying a variety of objects, including candelabra, vases,
