Description

Large KoÏ carp Lalique France. A symbol of wealth and perseverance, the KoÏ carp has often inspired artists. Created in 1953 by Marc Lalique, the 2 fish motif presents 2 carp springing from the waves in a movement evoking infinity. The brilliance of the re-polished satin crystal, emblematic of Lalique, highlights the delicacy of the finely chiseled scales. The Koi carp is a beautiful ornamental fish very popular in South East Asia. There are several colors to decorate outdoor pools. A Koi carp can expect to live 50 to 70 years. This exceptional piece is mounted on an illuminated base.
